Shadow Tag

What you need: A sunny day, two plus players, two socks (optional)

How to play:

- First, find your shadow. Change direction and explore the effect it has on your shadow. Discuss with a family member how the angle of your shadow is affected by the location of the sun.
- Try chasing your own shadow.
- Select one player to begin as the tagger. They tag other players by stepping on their shadow. Once caught, players change roles.
- Playing with just two players? First to three tags wins that round. First to win 5 rounds wins the game.
- Change the game by allowing players to throw socks at the shadow instead of stepping on them.

Golf Getters

What you need: 1 ball, frying pan, socks.

How to play:

- Place the socks in a space.
- Begin 6-8m away from the socks.
- Use the frying pan to hit the ball towards the socks.
- Count how many hits it takes to get the ball to hit the socks.

Play the game again, can you get there in less hits?

Playing against someone else? Who can hit the socks in the fewest hits?
