What a picnic 😊

Huge thanks for making our first family picnic such a success! It was a joy to see so many families chatting, eating and playing together in our playground.

Enormous thanks to Simon and Julian for providing and supervising the bouncy castles - such fun!

Thank you to all parents and carers who attended the welcome mornings this week.

Our school is successful because of the partnership we have with you

We value your support, your questions and your ideas.

Thank you 😊

Curriculum morning

We are looking forward to welcoming you next Tuesday morning (29th September) for our first curriculum activity morning 😊
9am to 10am

Year 6 parents and carers
Please let us know if you are visiting a secondary school with your child during the school day. This is an authorised absence 😊
If you need any support, please come and see us 😊

Writing to Protest

Ages 6-10

Based on Fatima's anti-pollution protest in 'Whispers of Wishing River', we create our own protest placards and stage a protest together! Sneaks in lots of grammar and stylistic writing tips, perfect for budding activists.
