On Wednesday, Year 5 went to Hampton Court Palace to learn more about the Tudors.

They explored the palace, and the gardens - even though it was raining!

They saw some very interesting artwork and were amazed by the detail in the embroidery work on display.

Fun fact: There are 241 decorative chimneys on Hampton Court Palace.

How to support your child's emotional outbursts

BBC Bitesize parenting gives the following suggestions:

1. Ask for help if you think your child needs it.
2. Let them have time to relax after school or at the weekend
3. Listen to them and help them feel heard.
4. Build in time for you and them to have fun together
5. Understand that an experience can be hard for a child. Let them talk 😊
