

Information session at Sir John Lillie Primary School

for parents & carers

We will talk about help and support available for Parents and things that may help when raising a child with special needs or a Disability. This is also to support parents of children waiting for a neurodevelopmental assessment (for ADHD or Autism).

When: Wednesday 19th April

Time: 9am-10am

We look forward to meeting you!