Huge thanks to Higgins construction

We have recently had a team of volunteers from the local construction company in school.

They have built new planters rebuilt some benches and steps in the nursery playground. They have also repaired and painted our outdoor blackboards and repaired the huge tree planter.

We want to say a huge thank you to the team and the company for everything they have done to make our playground super attractive and fun!

CLT interview with Ben Coleman MP

Last week, CLT met with Ben Coleman, the local MP. The leadership team showed him around the school and he said he was very impressed with the children and their learning.

The CLT then interviewed him asking him

- Why he wanted to be an MP?
- How he became an MP?
- what it was like to be an MP?
- What he hoped to do as the local MP?

Read the comments on the website to find out his answers.

Congratulations Year 5 😊

Year 5 presented their Internet Safety assembly to a delighted audience of family members on Wednesday.

Many thanks to all family members who joined it. We REALLY appreciate the partnership we have and your support.

This was the first class assembly of the year. So much important information was shared in order for us all to stay safe when using the internet.

Please go to our school website to give you tips on how to stay safe www.sirjohnlillie.lbhf.sch.uk

Composer

Info

In Friday assembly we have been learning about

Vivaldi and Elgar.

We have been listening to some of the pieces of music they wrote.

Their music is considered classical.

Maybe you could listen to some over the weekend?

Brain nibbles....

Did you have a 'chatter-time' last week with your family?

Maybe you could do it again when you sit down to have a meal. Each person chooses a topic and you all sit and chat about it ☺

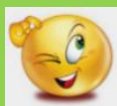

Why not pop along to the Victoria and Albert Museum and look at the amazing exhibitions.

Have you been for a walk along the river lately?

Make sure you go with an adult and walk sensibly on the tow path next to the water.

Puzzle time

Can you finish these book titles?

The Hungry _____

James and the giant _____

The Cat in the _____

The _____ who came to Tea

The Railway _____

Goodnight Mr. _____

Midsummer Nights' _____

Can you name the authors too?

Word of the week

Do you know what these words mean? Can you use the word of the week when you are having chatter-time this weekend?

Early Years and Years 1,2 and 3

stroll

Years 3,4,5 and 6
